Not your average storybook

WHETHER you're a relative living interstate or a parent on a holiday, you can now read a story to your favourite little ones this Christmas, no matter how far apart you are.

New Christmas Recordable Storybooks from Hallmark are beautifully illustrated hardcover books that allow parents, grandparents etc to record themselves reading a Christmas story to their loved ones.

These are not your average books - you can personalise them, sing passages, record special introductory messages or even record over them in a different style.

They are personalised keepsakes of your voice that can be kept for generations, with replaceable battery compartments ensuring their longevity.

Available at Target, Myer The Lucky Charm, NewsXpress and selected newsagents and gift stores across Australia and online at www.hallmarkcards.com.au/recordable-storybooks

To win send this week's QT masthead to Recordable Christmas Books competition.
